Dear Paul -

After I sent my email response to you yesterday, Pastor Wayne Taylor contacted us to let us know that given the escalated nature of your communication with us that he probably would not be the best mediator to serve us. I wanted to communicate that to you as soon as possible so you could have that information as you prepare your response to us. We are still fully committed and open to meeting with you and using a third party mediator to facilitate such a meeting.

In addition we wanted you to know that we have taken down our member communication that was posted on 12-5-07. We still believe that it was the appropriate biblical position regarding your relationship with Mars Hill, but with the passage of time, we have decided to move on. Provided you no longer actively oppose the leadership of Mars Hill, we will not use the members site or other general communications to advise Mars Hill members to avoid contact with you due to unrepentant sin. Even if complete reconciliation takes some time, our hope would be to go our separate ways in service of Christ.

Our door remains open to meet with you should you decide to take us up on that offer.

Respectfully,

Pastor Jamie
